Information – Marriage, Divorce & Remarriage. Many separated & divorced people wonder about their status within the Catholic Church. They, as well as single men & women thinking about marrying a divorced person, wonder about the possibility of marrying in the Church. The Church reaches out in support of people whose marriage has broken down, while upholding the permanence of a true marriage. These two aspects of the Church's position are especially evident in the sensitive work of the Tribunal. There are varying situations & anyone who wants to clarify their marital status in terms of the law of the Catholic Church are welcome to contact Theresa Harvey at the Tribunal on 4632 7443 or triboff@twb.catholic.org.au.

Support the Girls Australia is a Not for Profit Charity that is committed to empowering homeless women, domestic violence victims & disenfranchised women in our communities with dignity & respect. It all starts with the professional fitting of a bra, supply of new underwear, sanitary products & toiletries. Our aim is to empower these disadvantaged women in our community with the skills & tools to become their own super heroes & find their pathway in life. It is not for us to judge their past journeys but to assist them in their future journey. Educating the community, making them aware into what is happening around them is invaluable.
